Appreciating our long serving Volunteers

Heidi Victoria, Member for Bayswater, held a Volunteer Appreciation Awards and Morning Tea on 30 April 2012 to recognise the dedicated work of the long serving volunteers within the Bayswater Electorate.

The Awards were to acknowledge those volunteers who have volunteered for 10 or more consecutive years. It was an outstanding event with all recipients receiving Certificates of Appreciation and the five longest serving volunteers receiving trophies.

“I was absolutely thrilled to show appreciation to these hardworking and dedicated volunteers. The service they provide to our community is invaluable. It was very inspiring to see so many giving and selfless individuals willing to donate their time to helping others in need”, Mrs Victoria said.

Congratulations to all those volunteers who received Certificates of Appreciation, and especially to those five that have served the longest, namely Tom Bedohazy for 54 years, Clive Manly for 52 years, Alan Hodgkin for 43 years, Beryl Sperling for 40 years and Margaret Draegar for 38 years who all received trophies.

National Volunteer Week is being held on the 14-20 May 2012 and is the largest celebration of volunteers in Australia. This is an opportunity to highlight the role of volunteers in our communities and to say thank you for their dedicated service to those in need.
